Chiming of the Hour and the Light of Christ
Greeting Lord, we confess that we worry—a lot. We worry about our government, our economy, the state of the world, our children, and our families. We wonder how the world can possibly continue on its current path. We long for You to fix everything—and right now! But Lord, You know we are not a patient people. Remind us once more that by patient endurance we will gain our souls. Teach us today to wait upon You, to trust in Your timing, and to follow where You lead—the way that brings us to life eternal. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.
